Entities under the Public Sector Act 2022

The diagram below explains the relationship between public sector entities, public service entities (which are a subset of the larger group of public sector entities) and other government bodies that are not public sector entities for the purpose of the Public Sector Act 2022 (the Act).

Key Public sector entity (s8 of the Act) Public service entity (s9 of the Act) Not a public sector entity Excluded under s8(2) of the Act Chapter 2 prescribed entity (s25 of the Act) Equity and diversity audits and plans Chapter 1 reframing entity (s20 of the Act) Reframing the relationship with Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples Chapter 1 prescribed entity (s22 of the Act) Reframing the relationship plan and audit

Not a public sector entity Entity prescribed Public Sector Government Government Association not to be a public incorporated under owned corporation Governance Council House and its sector entity administrative unit the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 The Executive Taskforce established School council and Local government and Council and Legislative a local government under section 195 P&C association National system Assembly corporation of the Act employer under the Fair Work Act 2009 University Primary producer Parliamentary A court of (Cwlth) cooperative Service the State Queensland Police Service (QPS) Queensland Audit Office, the Community justice group under the (police officers, police recruits and special Queensland Ombudsman and the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander constables)* Crime and Corruption Commission Communities (Justice, Land and Other Matters) Act 1984 Not a public sector entity

^{*}This does not include all staff members employed in QPS, e.g. administrative staff are employed by the Department (a public service entity)

