

GENERAL RETENTION AND DISPOSAL SCHEDULE

Executive summary of major changes – September 2016

Queensland State Archives

Common Activities

- A new section bringing together records of common activities. These classes can be combined with any function within this schedule, an agency's core business schedule or sector schedule (provided the retention period meets an agency's specific regulatory requirements and there are no exclusions listed)
- Includes compensation - with a new record class for claims relating to hazardous substances.
- Introduced new activities of: meetings, project management, research and surveillance and monitoring.
- Retention period for advisory bodies has increased from 25 years to permanent.
- Retention period for self-insurance scheme claims has increased by 5 years to 55 years after settlement of claim.
- Retention period for surveillance footage provided to investigative bodies is now 1 year after recordings sent to relevant law enforcement agency. Footage not required for evidentiary purposes, and related to primary business operations, has a retention of 90 days after record created.

Asset Management

- A new function that merges the former functions of Equipment & Stores, Fleet Management and parts of Technology & Telecommunications.
- Contains new record classes for registered plant and business/software applications.

Collection Management

- A new function covering records of libraries, information centres, museums, art galleries, theatres etc.

External Relations

- A new function that merges the former functions of Community Relations & Government Relations.
- Introduced new activities/classes of: addresses, presentations or speeches, customer service, program & event management and honours, awards and prizes that an agency receives or distributes.
- The retention of unsubstantiated public interest disclosures has increased from 3 to 10 years.
- Executive Council Minutes are now covered by 2 new classes. Procedures for the implementation of approved Executive Council Minutes changed in 2010 and, as a result, any Executive Council Minutes approved prior to 2010 and held by an agency must be retained permanently.
